

Our Capability

FIFTEEN50

Fifteen50 Consulting is an emerging consultancy established to service clients and sectors throughout south-east Australia. Operating from a base in the heart of the Murray-Darling Basin our Echuca/Moama presence provides for delivery of solutions to our valued client across the engineering and resource management markets. Our regional services and capabilities provided for delivery in the civil, water, environment and linear infrastructure sectors.

Project Definition and development

- Site investigations
- Engineering options
- Project management
- Business cases

Environmental planning and approvals

- Impact assessment
- Approvals pathway
- Site environmental management

Water resource engineering

- Water cycle analysis
- Drainage assessment
- Pipe network design
- Earthworks and dams

Stakeholder management

- Options analysis and development
- Stakeholder engagement
- Consultation

Project and contract management

- Procurement support
- Site supervision
- Contract management
- Monitoring and reporting

Asset management

- Detailed design
- Business case development
- Life cycle modelling
- Pricing and tariffs

Partners at Fifteen50 Consulting are known to clients throughout the region and are striving to ensure value for money outcomes through delivering projects for our clients and regional communities. Fifteen50 presents a strong offering over our competitors and we invite clients to experience the benefits of choosing us.

Matt Barden

Director, Operations Management
0417 788 709

Dean Delahunty

Director, Business Controls
0407 520 758

Nathan Heinrich

Director, Project Delivery
0427 328 010